

Variant, number 25 spring 2006

ISSN 0954-8815

Variant is a magazine with the independence to be critical that addresses cultural issues in a social and political context.

Variant is a charitable organisation and functions with the assistance of subscriptions and advertising.

We welcome contributions in the form of news, reviews, articles, interviews, polemical pieces and artists' pages. Guidelines for writers are available on request and at the Variant website.

Opinions expressed in Variant are those of the writers and not necessarily those of the editors or Variant. All material is copyright (unless stated otherwise) the authors or Variant.
